

Awards for 2022

- 1. Awards are given according to funds available. All need not be given.*
- 2. To be eligible for an award, a performer must have performed in at least two solo performing classes in one discipline and at one Level (Primary and Junior, Intermediate and Senior) or in a Concert Group.*
- 3. A solo performer chosen for more than one monetary award will be given the largest of these awards and will be acknowledged as having earned the other award(s) which will go to the next worthy performer.*
- 4. Award winners are recommended by the adjudicators considering performance, ability, and potential.*

The following awards are available for deserving performers in any discipline.

- Barbara and Bill Campbell Memorial Award
- Donna Fox Memorial Awards
- Mary James Memorial Award
- Kingston Symphony Volunteers' Awards for performance of orchestral instruments
- Don McLean Memorial Award
- Ann McGuirk Memorial Awards (Ontario Registered Music Teachers' Association, Kingston Branch)
- Ed Preston Memorial Award.
- Jean Robinson Award
- Kenneth and Esther Russell Memorial Awards for Performance Excellence
- Wendy Thorburn Memorial Awards.

MUSIC THEATRE AWARD

- Dr. Eric and Eleanor Mae Murray Memorial Awards for Musical Theatre
- Pedlar Family Junior Music Theatre Award
- The Russell Family Award for Excellence in Musical Theatre

VOICE AWARDS

The Moir Memorial Tray for Voice for a Voice student 18 years old or younger who is a permanent resident of Kingston and area, studying with a teacher in Kingston, who shows the greatest potential for serious vocal study.

- Pierre Gobin Awards for Voice and Piano
- Olive Juby Memorial Awards for Voice
- Pauline and Clifford Kemp Memorial Award for Voice or Guitar
- Juliet Milsome Award for Sacred Voice
- Pedlar Family Award for Popular Voice
- Clifford Watt Memorial Award for Senior Voice and/or Instrumental Performer
- Ruth Tatham Memorial Sacred Solo Awards
- The Russell Family Award for Excellence in Vocal Music
- Davy Family Award for the Most Promising Male Vocalist

PIANO AWARDS

The Donna Gobin Memorial Rosebowl is awarded to a Piano student who is a permanent resident of Kingston or the surrounding area and, in the opinion of the adjudicator, shows greatest musicality, musicianship, promise and pleasure in performance. The recipient shall be working at a minimum level of grade eight. Usually, the student must have entered either a Sight Reading or Quick Study class. However, because of Covid-19 those classes are not offered in 2022 so this year the student must enter 3 solo classes or 1 solo class and a Concert Class. No student will be eligible for this award two years in a row. This trophy need not be awarded every year. The recipient must be prepared to perform at the Highlights Concert. This trophy must be returned to the festival by the first of February of the following year.

- Jeanne and Frank Corbett Memorial Awards for Promising Young Piano Students
- Donna Fox Memorial Award
- Pierre Gobin Awards for Piano and Voice
- Arthur and Eileen Keppel-Jones Memorial Awards for promising young Piano students.
- Eunice A Millan Memorial Award for an accomplished Piano student at least grade 9 level.
- Juliet Milsome Award for Senior Piano
- Joyce Putnam Awards for Senior Piano
- Dr. Bryan and Marion Smith Memorial Award for Senior Piano
- Kingston Suzuki Music Association Piano Award is given (at the discretion of the adjudicator) to a piano student who performs a Suzuki Book 1 or Suzuki Book 2 piece to a high standard in Class 1751 (book1, part 1), class 1752 (book 1, part 2) or class 1753 (book 2)
- Van Nest Awards for Piano Duets and Trios

STRING AWARDS

- Kiwanis Plaque for outstanding solo String Performance
- Heeyun and Robert Brandon Memorial String Awards
- L. R. Digby Award for a Senior String player, preferably a cellist
- Pauline and Clifford Kemp Memorial Award for Guitar or Voice
- Kingston Suzuki Music Association String Award is given (at the discretion of the adjudicator) to a string student who performs a piece at a high standard from Suzuki Book I or 2 in Suzuki Strings Level 1 or 2
- Ki Ok Han Kwan Memorial Award for Junior Violin
- Clifford Watt Memorial Award for Instrumental Performer and/or Senior Voice

WOODWIND/BRASS/PERCUSSION AWARDS

- Kiwanis Plaque for outstanding solo Winds/Brass/Percussion performance.
- Lynn Anne Milsom Memorial Award for the most promising clarinetist in Open or 18 and under
- Ross Kilpatrick Memorial Award for Woodwinds/Brass/Percussion
- Davy Family Award for the most promising performer of a piece by a Canadian composer

MULTI-DISCIPLINE AWARD

- Carl A. Boe Memorial Multi-Discipline Award will be given to a performer who has been recommended by adjudicators for awards in three of more of the following classes: (i) A solo instrument or voice; (ii) A second solo instrument or voice and one of: a duet, trio, quartet, or quintet in a musical instrument or voice; a solo, duet, trio or quartet in speech arts and drama; an original musical composition.

SPECIAL AWARDS

- Kiwanis ORIGINAL COMPOSITION AWARD.
- Queen's University DAN School of Drama and Music Awards – these awards are to be granted at the discretion of the adjudicators to students in grades 11 and 12 in the following categories: Voice, Piano, Composition, Strings, and Woodwind/Brass/Percussion. All recipients of this award will have the opportunity to receive a free lesson/consultation from a DAN School faculty member of their choice, either in person or over Zoom, any time before June 30, 2022.